STATEWIDE ELECTRONIC VOTER INFORMATION

In accordance with Utah Code 20A-7-801, the Lieutenant Governor's Office has developed the Statewide Electronic Voter Information Website Program. This website allows registered voters to view information particular to them including their polling place, information on candidate, and propositions, etc.

Candidates who wish to provide their biographical information, contact information and a 200-word qualifying statement for the Statewide Electronic Voter Information Website must submit everything by 5:00 p.m. on July 1 (for the Primary Election) and by 5:00 p.m. September 6 (for the general election). Attached is a copy of the instructions for the Statewide Electronic Voter Information.

In addition to the Statewide Electronic Voter Information Website, the City of Orangeville will be publishing an online Voter Information Pamphlet that will contain information on the candidates running for office. This will include a 200-word qualifying statement, contact information and a photo of each candidate. Candidates who wish to be included in this online pamphlet must submit everything to the City Recorder by Monday, July 1, 2021, no later than 5:00 p.m.
