

17-16-6.5. Campaign financial disclosure in county elections.

- (1) (a) By January 1, 1994, each county shall adopt an ordinance establishing campaign finance disclosure requirements for candidates for county offices.
- (b) The ordinance shall include:
 - (i) a requirement that each candidate for county office maintain financial and other campaign records and expenditures at least once within two weeks before the election and at least once within two months after the election;
 - (ii) a definition of "contributions" and expenditure that requires reporting of pecuniary contributions such as in-kind contributions and contributions of tangible things; and
 - (iii) a requirement that the financial reports identify:
 - (A) for each contribution of more than $50, the name of the donor or the contributor and the amount of the contribution; and
 - (B) for each expenditure, the name of the recipient and the amount of the expenditure.
 - (c) (i) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), if any county fails to adopt a campaign finance disclosure ordinance by January 1, 1994, candidates for county office shall comply with the financial reporting requirements contained in Subsections (1) through (3).
 - (ii) If, after August 1, 1994, any county adopts a campaign finance ordinance meeting the requirements of Subsection (1), that county need not comply with the requirements of Subsections (1) through (3).
 - (d) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b), and if there is no county ordinance meeting the requirements of this section, each candidate for elective office in any county who is not required to submit a campaign financial statement to the lieutenant governor shall file a signed campaign financial statement with the county clerk:
 - (i) seven days before the date of the regular general election, including each contribution of more than $50 and each expenditure of 20 days before the date of the regular general election; and
 - (ii) on or later than 30 days after the date of the regular general election.
 - (e) Candidates for non-elected offices shall not exempt from the requirements of this section.
 - (f) (i) The statement filed seven days before the regular general election shall include:
 - (A) a list of each contribution of more than $50 received by the candidate, and the name of the donor;
 - (B) an aggregate total of all contributions of $50 or less received by the candidate; and
 - (C) a list of each expenditure for political purposes made during the campaign period, and the recipient of each expenditure.
 - (ii) The statement filed 30 days after the regular general election shall include:
 - (A) a list of each contribution of more than $50 received by the candidate for the statement filed seven days before the election, and the name of the donor;
 - (B) an aggregate total of all contributions of $50 or less received by the candidate after the cutoff date for the statement filed seven days before the election; and
 - (C) a list of all expenditures for political purposes made by the candidate after the cutoff date for the statement filed seven days before the election, and the recipient of each expenditure.
 - (g) Candidates for elective office in any county

- who are eliminated at a primary election shall file a signed campaign financial statement containing the information required by this section no later than 30 days after the primary election.
- (8) Any person who fails to comply with this section is guilty of an infraction.
- (9) Counties may, by ordinance, enact requirements that:
 - (A) require greater disclosure of campaign contributions and expenditures; and
 - (B) impose additional penalties.
- (10) (a) If a candidate fails to file in accordance with this section, the county clerk shall, after making a reasonable attempt to discover if the report was timely mailed, inform the appropriate election officials who:
 - (i) shall, if practicable, remove the name of the candidate by blocking out the candidate's name before the ballots are delivered to voters; or
 - (ii) shall, if practicable, inform the voters by any reasonable method that the candidate has been disqualified and that votes cast for the candidate will not be counted; and
 - (iii) may not count any votes for that candidate.
- (b) If a candidate is not disqualified under this section, the candidate files the reports required by this section:
 - (i) those reports are complete, detailing accurately and completely the information required by this section except for inadvertent omissions or insignificant errors or inaccuracies; and
 - (ii) those omissions, errors, or inaccuracies are corrected in an amended report on the next scheduled report.
- (c) A report is considered filed if:
 - (i) it is received in the county clerk's office no later than 30 days after the date that it is filed;
 - (ii) it is received in the county clerk's office with a U.S. Postal Service postmark three days or more before the date that the report was due; or
 - (iii) the candidate has posted that the report was mailed, with appropriate postage and addressing, three days before the report was due.
- (d) Any person who in intent may bring a civil action to enforce the provisions of this section in this section in any ordinance adopted under this section:
 - (i) in a civil action filed under Subsection (7)(a), the court shall award costs and attorney's fees to the prevailing party;
 - (ii) notwithstanding any provision of Title 62C, Chapter 2, Government Records Access and Management Act, the county clerk shall:
 - (A) make each campaign financial statement filed by a candidate available for public inspection and copying no later than one business day after the statement is filed; and
 - (B) make the campaign financial statement filed by a candidate available for public inspection by:
 - (i) posting or electronic copy on the website of the statement on the county's website no later than two business days after the statement is filed; and
 - (ii) mailing, at the address of the county's website has been provided in the lieutenant governor's order to post the campaign statement in Subsection 7(b)(1)(B), or
 - (iii) submitting a copy of the statement to the lieutenant governor for posting on the website established by the lieutenant governor under Section 20A-11-103 no later than two business days after the statement is filed.
